

Blood Command

EU Tour 2025

Death pop pioneers from Bergen Norway, and now Melbourne Australia, have kept it going since 2008 with the most deadly punkrock bangers, catchy pop songs and infectious dance floor hits.

Always dressed to kill; head to toe in three stripes, Blood Command's live show is nothing short of soaring sky high karate kicks and non-stop chaotic energy! Must see to believe.

The band finished 2023 with a bang, headlining a successful European Tour, with a number of sell out shows in celebration of their 5th Studio Record World Domination. 2024 saw the band play over 20 European Festivals; such as the iconic 2000 Trees, ArcTangent, Mystic and Mission Ready Festivals, all of which saw the band gaining thousands of new followers and critical acclaim.

In 2025 they'll be back with another full length record on german record label «Arising Empire» with first single «We Could Be Heaven» dropping november 1th 2024

Like various underground religious groups throughout history, Blood Command's ever growing following, The Awaketeam, is rising around the globe, and they are not stopping until total World Domination.
