

Coldrain

UK / EU TOUR 2025

It surely will be a busy year for coldrain: After sharing their plans for a busy festival summer in Germany, the band has announced their headline tour for Europe and the UK, scheduled for November and December this year. With a total of 17 stops, the quintet will be performing in the UK, Belgium, France, Germany, Netherlands, Switzerland, Czech Republic, Austria, Hungary, and Poland. Officially kicking off November 22nd in Manchester, UK, the tour will have its closing show December 13th in Frankfurt, Germany. Just recently, coldrain released their newest single, "INCOMPLETE". This track has already garnered significant attention and praise from both fans and new audiences alike, showcasing the band's continued evolution and musical force. It's clear that 2025 is shaping up to be an unforgettable year for the band with more to come.

About coldrain: Formed in 2007 in Nagoya, Japan, and with a total of seven studio albums under their belt, coldrain is certainly not a new name in the scene. While releasing music in English, the quintet is known for blending melodic singing with heavy instrumentals and screaming, finding the perfect balance between genres. Over the years, coldrain has built an international audience by touring with renowned bands like Bullet for My Valentine and Papa Roach. In February 2023, they hosted the large-scale rock festival "BLARE FEST. 2023" in their hometown of Nagoya, featuring prominent domestic and international artists. With their signing to Century Media Records in March 2025 and the release of their latest single "INCOMPLETE," coldrain is poised to captivate global audiences.