ELECTRIC CALLBOY ANNOUNCE TANZNEID WORLD TOUR

ELECTRIC CALLBOY are going global. The German phenomenon proudly announces the TANZNEID WORLD TOUR. The tour will bring their explosive live spectacle to major arenas across Europe / UK, North America, Japan, and Australia, delivering their moves to fans around the world.

Following a string of international sold-out shows and viral success, ELECTRIC CALLBOY are once again set to raise the bar. Known for their genre-defying fusion of metalcore and electronic rave culture, the band is now officially rebranding the previously announced UK and European dates under the TANZNEID WORLD TOUR banner uniting every show as part of one global movement of music, madness, and mayhem.

“With TANZNEID, we will bring a brand new live show to fans all around the world,” the band shares. “This tour is about celebrating the connection we have with our fans across continents and bringing the full Electric Callboy experience to as many places as we can. Every night will be wild, loud, and unforgettable.”
