

Erika Vikmann

Ich Komme Europe - Spring 2027

Fresh off a transformative year on the global stage, feminist pop trailblazer Erika Vikman is set to take over Europe with her highly anticipated ICH KOMME EUROPE - SPRING 2027 TOUR. Vikman's biggest international tour to date will include 8 shows in 4 different countries across Europe. Ticket sales start on the 18th of May 2026 at 2 pm (UTC).

- Next spring, my dream will come true as I embark on my first proper European tour. You guys have been asking for this a lot! I can't wait to meet my European fans and provide the full Erika Vikman experience in a club setting. ICH KOMME EUROPE, KOMMST DU?, Erika Vikman comments.

The announcement comes as Vikman prepares for a return to the Eurovision stage. On May 16th, she will perform as a special guest at the Eurovision finals on the competition's 70th anniversary, a date that also marks the 20th anniversary of Finland's legendary victory in Athens 2006.

In 2025, Erika Vikman experienced one of the most successful and internationally visible years of her career. The year elevated her from a domestic favorite to a widely recognized European performer and a rising international icon.

Known for her electric stage presence, Erika Vikman is a force to be reckoned with. Eurovision and the success of her empowering anthem ICH KOMME brought her widespread international recognition and a growing fanbase across Europe. Following Eurovision, Vikman continued her success with international live shows. Erika has performed abroad at the Swedish QX Gala and with a few concerts, including performances in Stockholm, Amsterdam and sold-out London alongside touring in Finland. These were the artist's first own concerts outside of Finland.

Her latest release Adam & Steve arrived in the beginning of May and was a tribute to the queer community that has supported Vikman throughout her career. The new single was preceded by her English-language debut FATHER (I Will Never Confess), released in February, which was Vikman's first original release since winning the Finnish Uuden Musiikin Kilpailu (UMK) and securing a strong 11th-place finish in the Grand final of the Eurovision Song Contest.

Erika Vikman is one of Finland's brightest stars and a trailblazer in feminist pop. Vikman has redefined the modern pop diva with a bold image that has captivated an international audience. She became a household name in Finland in 2020 with her breakout hits Cicciolina and Syntisten pöytä. Both tracks dominated Spotify and radio charts alike, with the latter earning a prestigious Song of the Year nomination at the Finnish Grammys, Emma Gala. In 2023, she released Ruoska with Käärijä, and the song quickly became a cult classic.
