European Tour 2026

LANSDOWNE – Official Biography (2025)

From war zones to festival stages, Boston rock band Lansdowne has built a career on grit, heart, and high-impact hooks. Since 2006, they've grown into one of modern rock's most relentless and independent acts, amassing over 140 million streams, 75,000+ global sales, and a loyal worldwide fanbase.

Forged by the Road

Jon Ricci (vocals), Shaun Lichtenstein (guitar/vocals), Glenn Mungo (drums), Josh Waterman (guitar/vocals), and Mike LaRoche (bass) have weathered every storm – from flooded tours in Texas to near-misses in Afghanistan – always staying true to their sound and story. “We don’t chase trends, we chase truth,” says Ricci.

Whether performing for U.S. troops overseas or opening for Halestorm, Theory of a Deadman, and Creed, Lansdowne delivers a raw, unforgettable live show.

Breakthrough & Momentum

Their 2022 album Medicine marked a career high, with breakout single “Halo” hitting Top 5 on European rock radio. The album's mix of emotional depth and hard-hitting sound resonated deeply with fans. Their music has since been featured by iRobot, the NFL, and MTV, with global radio success and festival slots at Graspop (Main Stage), UrRock Fest, and Rock for People.

The Odyssey Era

Now signed to Odyssey Music Network and Seaside Entertainment, Lansdowne's 2025 single “Make It a Lie” became a streaming hit, praised for its raw emotion and honesty. The band continues to evolve while staying rooted in the authenticity that built their reputation.

Still Blue Collar, Now Global

From humble beginnings to international tours, Lansdowne remains grounded yet ambitious—ready to leave their mark on stages worldwide. Their next full-length album arrives March 2026.
