

Icelandic classic rock trio THE VINTAGE CARAVAN unleashed their 4th studio album »Gateways« on August 31, 2018 through Nuclear Blast Records (Alda Music/Iceland). The record was received very well, and led to the band's first ever chart entry in Germany (#75), followed by a successful EU/UK tour. Today the band is happy to announce the second leg of their European »Gateways« tour for April/May 2019. Starting on April 17 in Amsterdam, NL, the trek will be rounded off by a gig in Helsinki, FIN on May 6. Additionally, new festival appearances have been added to THE VINTAGE CARAVAN's touring schedule.

All dates can be found below.

Comments the band, "Incredible times ahead! We can't wait to bring the Caravan over to the mainland and Scandinavia to let the good times roll! We promise you all powerful and electrifying performances! The first part of the »Gateways« tour was amazing for us, multiple sold out shows, fantastic times so we encourage you to get a ticket in time!

See you out there on the »Gateways« tour part II!" »Gateways« European Tour - Part II
